

Robins Class

Our Focus this Term is: Long Long Ago

Our Learning in Term 6

My Communication	We are focusing on stories with familiar settings. These include the Story of Peace at last which is set in the home and we are looking at books about schools as part of our transition and the seaside in readiness for the holidays. We will be developing individual communication programmes on a cross curricular basis
My Problem Solving	This term in Maths we are learning about number bonds, addition and subtraction and time.
My Body	We are focusing on keeping fit and will be practising for sports day. Our PE day is Monday with other various physical activities throughout the week such as time in soft play.
My Wellbeing	We are learning about looking after ourselves which includes ways of keeping fit, healthy diet and caring for ourselves.
My World	Our topic is the Romans, and we are learning about how the Romans conquered different countries and learning about Roman soldiers, the things which were built e.g. Hadrian's wall, how they dressed and their way of life. We are also learning being kind and helping others in RE through stories such as the Good Samaritan.
My Creativity	We are learning about Roman Art which includes making mosaics and also designing and creating Roman shields which were carried by Roman soldiers. In music we are learning about Roman marching songs.

To celebrate Equality and Diversity this term we will raise awareness of and learn about the following through activities within school.
